This performance will include music from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and Modern eras—Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, and Shostakovich, respectively. The musical program will be interspersed with a thought-provoking lecture on the context of the music and on the composers themselves.

This event is sponsored by the Gluck Fellows Program of the Arts at the University of California, Riverside. The Gluck Fellows Program of the Arts is made possible through the generosity of the Maxwell H. Gluck Foundation.
